

Gwangju, UNESCO Triple Crown

UNESCO Memory of the World [May 18 Democratic Uprising Archives]

The UNESCO Memory of the World project began in 1995 to preserve and use documentary heritage that is in danger of being damaged or disappearing forever, even though it is an important heritage for human culture inheritance. In 2011, the May 18 Democratization Movement records were registered as UNESCO Memory of the World. You can see related records and materials by visiting the May 18 Democratic Uprising Archives.
